Historaoke

Stephen ~ "19 Long winters" 1135-54

	Stephen ~ "19 Long winters" 1135-54
Origins of Civil War:
Accession 1135	Come on and listen to the story of Stephen,	Son of Adela of Normandy
	The nephew of Henry I,	William I's daughter
Disputed succession	And how Matilda, Henry's daughter claimed his land;	5
Bisputta succession	How that "the king was a mild man and did no justice"	Henry I had named his daughter
Royal weaknesses	Proved to be England's curse,,	Matilda as his successor, but Stephen
Royal weakiiesses	How for nineteen years, There was anarchy close at hand?	was proclaimed king with the support
F-:1 £ 5 44: -1-
Failure of Scottish	For King David brought his Scottish army,	of London and the church invasion	To champion Matilda's cause,
X The Standard Aug'38	But at Northallerton, the Yorkshire saints' Standards defiantly flew;
Arrival of Matilda & Robert	So Matilda and her brother Robert of Gloucester	They sailed from Normandy & landed of Gloucester Sep'39	Crossed the Channel to spark the wars,	at Arundel
	While Normandy was claimed by her husband,
	Geoffrey Comte d'Anjou,
	For "Nineteen Long Winters", "Christ and his saints slept":
	While huts burned to cinders and scalded eyes wept
	Where screams turned to whimpers and Death coldly crept.
	For Nineteen Long Winters, when his saints and Christ slept:
The Three Sieges:
1. Lincoln Jan-Feb'41	For though Matilda captured Stephen at Lincoln,
1. Lincom Jan-1 CU TI	And went to London to set up court,
Failure of Matilda	She was driven out to take London	For trying to raise a punitive tax;
	Then clashed with Stephen's brother,
	Henry of Winchester,
	Who denied her church support,
2. Wolvesey Aug-Sep'41	And though besieging him in Wolvesey castle	The Bishop's castle in Winchester
	It remained intact
	But when Robert her brother was captured,
	And Matilda compelled to retreat,
	To secure his release,
	She was forced to let Stephen go;
3. Oxford Sep –Dec'42	Yet when Stephen besieged her in Oxford,
•	Where Matilda faced defeat,
	She escaped in a pure white cloak,
	Over the snow
	For Nineteen Long Winters, Christ and his saints slept:
	While huts burned to cinders and scalded eyes wept
	Where screams turned to whimpers as Death coldly crept.
	For Nineteen Long Winters, when his saints and Christ slept:
The Americky 2 1142 0	Tor American Long Winters, when his suints and Christ stept.
The Anarchy? 1143-9	Dobout foiled to continue Ct-ul Wilter
Jan'43	Robert failed to capture Stephen at Wilton,
N. 242 G 244	But all authority was undermined, As barons like de Mandeville
Nov'43-Sep'44
1146-9	And Ranulf of Chester rebelled:	Geoffrey de Mandeville died 1144
	The king arraigned them then released them for loyalty	during an attack on Burwell castle,
	But they rendered nothing of the kind,	(completed by Stephen)
	And in the anarchy, the rotting piles
Jan'44	of tortured corpses swelled
	It was then in a bid to claim title,
1147	Matilda's son Henry twice sailed to invade,
1149	Joining forces with Ranulf,
	Though Stephen still refused to give in;
Aug'53	Until, and when Eustace his son died,
Truce of Wallingford	At Wallingford, peace was made,
confirmed at Winchester	By which Henry would rule
Nov'53	As the first Plantagenet king
1107 33	110 the first I tuling offer Killg
Death of Stephen 25 Oct'54	For Nineteen Long Winters, Christ and his saints slept:
Death of Stephen 23 Oct 34	While huts burned to cinders and scalded eyes wept
	Whara screams turned to whimners and Death coldly creat

Where screams turned to whimpers and Death coldly crept. Till peace terms cooled tempers, and words given kept..